Application form

Guidance notes - Form 2

Thank you for considering working for us. We want to choose the best person for the job, no matter what their gender identity, relationship status, race, disability, sexual orientation, religion, belief or age. We ask you to provide dates of employment and qualifications only so we can confirm your work history.

First, you need to fill in an application form. Once we have received your form, we will review it to see if you have the skills, experience, qualifications and so on you need to do the job. If you do, we will invite you to come to an interview.

We have designed this application form in three parts to make sure our processes are fair.

Part A of this form asks for personal information. We use this information to contact you and provide any extra support you may need if we ask you to come for an interview.

Part B of this form asks you to provide information about your past jobs and any experience, qualifications or skills you may have. Try to give as much information as you can as this will help us to see if you would be suitable for the job.

Part C of this form is for monitoring equality and diversity only. We separate it from the rest of your form and it will not be seen by anyone involved in deciding whether to offer you the job. However, if you tell us that you have a disability, we will give this information to the shortlisting managers to make sure they comply with our Guaranteed Interview Scheme.

Please fill in this form in black ink or a black type. This is because we may need to photocopy it. We do not accept CVs.

For jobs working with children, young people and vulnerable adults (as well as some other jobs), if we choose you for the job we will also need to contact the Disclosure and Barring Service to find out if you have a criminal record and if the job is in regulated activity we will check if you are barred from working with children and/or vulnerable adults. A criminal record will not automatically stop you from getting the job, but we will consider the nature of the offence when assessing how suitable you are for the job. If you are barred from working with a vulnerable group it is an offence for you to apply for a job working with that group. If you fail to fill in a disclosure form when we ask, we will not be able to employ you. You can find more information about this in our 'Policy Statement on the Recruitment of Ex-offenders'. You can get a copy of this policy statement by phoning Employee Services on 0191 2115205 or emailing jobs@newcastle.gov.uk.

Unfortunately, we are not able to contact everyone who applies for a job with us. If you do not hear from us within six weeks of the closing date, you should assume that your application has not been successful.

If you need this form in another format such as in Braille or in large print, please phone Employee Services on 0191 2115205 or email jobs@newcastle.gov.uk.

We look forward to receiving your application.
